Introduction

The beginning of February was marked by the ice storm our community experienced and the immediate aftermath. I was exceptionally proud of our team during this time. We had no disruption in any of our services due to the storm, several of our dispatchers even slept at the office so they could ensure they would be here to work the following shift.

During this month, we put an emphasis on training for our officers with many of our officers receiving Patrol Rifle training. This training and equipment is critical for officers to be able to respond appropriately to major incidents and we are pleased that they are receiving it.

February was a great month for engaging with our community! We shifted our monthly Coffee with Cops event to Dinner with Cops, thank you to Lago Vista ISD for allowing us to host this at the high school and thank you to all who attended! I was also pleased to be the guest speaker at the Lago Vista Women's Club monthly luncheon. It was a great time sharing some of the awesome things going on in our department and answering questions.
