Introduction

July remained a busy and productive month for the police department! Our calls for service and traffic stops were consistent with levels of activity for the past two months. I am very proud of the work our officers have been doing and pleased to see proactive activity, such as traffic stops, continuing to trend in a positive direction from where we were several months ago.

Members of our team had multiple opportunities for professional development this month. We completed providing sexual assault and family violence investigation training to every officer in our department, many of our officers have expressed their appreciation for this training and they have already been putting it to use to provide better service to our citizens. Captain Chrane and Sergeant Wilson completed the final module of a Developing Leaders for Texas Law Enforcement course from the Texas Police Chief's Association. Finally, several members of our team attended training on the Police Chief's Association Law Enforcement Accreditation Program.

We had several great opportunities for interacting with and continuing to build relationships with our community this month. We hosted a Donuts with Dispatch community event which was well attended. We also participated in or visited numerous other community events this month. We have also begun planning for National Night Out to take place at the police department on Tuesday, October 3, 2023. Look for more details on this soon!
